6/9/69

Fire at Office Of Invaders

The 271 Vance headquarters of the Invaders, Negro militant group, appeared to have been "pretty well torn up" when firemen arrived to quench a blaze there at 1 a.m. yesterday, a fire department spokesman said today.

Fire Department investigators said several piles of paper in the old building had been set afire, apparently the work of arsonists.

The fire was quickly brought under control. The investigation continued today.